

NATIVITY OF OUR LORD ORTHODOX CHURCH PARISH REGULATIONS

PREAMBLE

The Parish Priest, in consultation with the Parish Advisory Council of the Nativity of Our Lord Orthodox Church of Manassas, Virginia, hereby adopts the provisions contained herein this day of December 5, 2016. The provisions serve as Regulations that address themselves to the requirements of local needs of the community of Nativity of Our Lord Orthodox Church of Manassas, Virginia.

ARTICLE 1

NAME & PURPOSE

Nativity of Our Lord Orthodox Church is the official name of the parish of Manassas, Virginia. It is a mission parish, which is part of the American Carpatho-Russian Orthodox Diocese of the Ecumenical Patriarchate of Constantinople. Nativity of Our Lord Orthodox Church's vision is "witnessing Christ by becoming images of the Image." Its values are:

- Accepting His steadfast love
- Participating in the Holy Mysteries, traditions, and prayers
- Experiencing His mercy
- A harbor for the people of all nations

For purposes of this document, the word "Church" hereinafter refers to the Orthodox Church.

ARTICLE 2

PARISHIONERS

Any person, eighteen years of age or over, who was baptized according to the rites of the Church, or was received into the Church through Chrismation, who lives according to the Faith and Canons of the Church, abides by these Regulations, and fulfills her or his stewardship to the Parish, and cooperates towards the well being of the Parish is, subject of approval of the Parish Priest, a member of the Parish. Members of the Parish have the status of in good standing or in not good standing.

A parishioner shall be considered being in good standing when the following conditions are met:

- Annually pays her/his diocesan assessment;
- Regularly participates in the stewardship of Nativity;
- Regularly attends Divine Liturgy and receives the Holy Eucharist; and
- Participates in the Holy Mystery of Repentance a minimum of once per year, preferably multiple times and frequently.

Only members in good standing may lead Parish committees or have any other leadership role within the Church.

The Parish Priest, with the advice of the Parish Advisory Council, may deem a Parishioner not in good standing when he or she meets any of the following criteria:

- Is unwilling to meet the definition of good standing (as described in these Regulations);
- Demonstrates an unwillingness to comply or accept Parish's established policies, procedures, and practices;
- Violates and Canons of the Church and engages in calumny<sup>1</sup> against the Parish Priest, Parish Advisory Council, or other Parishioners;
- Demonstrates violent, divisive, and or disruptive behavior to the fabric of the Parish order.

If a Parishioner, after notice and after individual and collective attempts to seek reconciliation by the members of the Parish, is unwilling to accept personal responsibility and pursue reconciliation with the Parish Priest, the Parish Advisory Council, and/or members for the good order of the Parish, he/she will be informed of her/his not in good standing status by the Parish Priest. Moreover, no monetary contributions will be accepted from such Parishioner in
